

SYRUP OF FIGS

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken, is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.
LOUISVILLE, KY.
NEW YORK, N.Y.

FOR CLERK COURT OF APPEALS.

We are authorized to announce
GEORGE H. MADDEN,
as a Candidate for Clerk Court Appeals subject to the action of Democratic State Convention.

FOR JUDGE COURT OF APPEALS.

We are authorized to announce
JOHN ROBERTS,
of the City of Louisville, as a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, subject to the action of the Democratic party of the Third Appellate District.

JUDGE JOSEPH LEWIS,

as a candidate for re-election to the office of Judge of the Court of Appeals, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

John Allen Murray, Wm. K. Barnes,
Clerk, Hardinsburg.

MURRAY & BARNES,

Attorneys at Law,
Hardinsburg, Ky.

Dr. J. T. BAKER,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,
HARDINSBURG, KY.

Office on Irish Corner.

BRACKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1890.

Notice the label on your paper and see if your time expires this month.

PERSONAL.

Jan. 9, Jolly went to Louisville Sunday.

Mr. John P. Newman was in town Thursday.

Mrs. W. H. Pomeroy went to Hot Springs.

Miss Lilla Plunkett came down Saturday.

Miss Annie Hanks went to Louisville Sunday.

Miss Blanche Frank was in the city Thursday.

Mrs. C. M. Bullitt returned from Louisville last week.

Mr. Billa Harman, of Hawgville, is visiting in the city.

Miss Mannie Harman, of Hawgville, is visiting in the city.

Judge Milton Board and N. McMorris were in town this week.

Mr. J. M. Newitt came up from Owensboro for a few days this week.

Mrs. John P. Franks, of Brandenburg, is visiting Mrs. B. H. Mooreman.

Mr. Richard May and his brother, Alex, of Cincinnati, were in town Friday.

Mr. Geo. Straffer, of Louisville, was the guest of Mr. Geo. Jordan last week.

Mr. J. F. Bedman and wife, of Glendale, are visiting Mr. W. O. Allen and wife.

Mrs. Dr. Thomas and Sam H. Thomas, of Evans, are visiting Mrs. B. H. Mooreman.

Mr. O. W. Budd and two children, Harry and Daisy, returned from Cincinnati Monday.

David W. Henry, proprietor of the Irvington Hotel, Irvington, was in the city last week.

Mrs. All Tate, of Hardinsburg, was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sullivan Wagner, last week.

Col. "Doc" Wilkerson, of Malmesbury, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Babbage Friday.

Mr. Scott Morrison, of Hawgville, returned to the Steel-Newton train, was here several days this week.

Miss Lida Shalleron and—Clark, of Canaan, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clark this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Latimer, a recently married young couple, of Canaan, are visiting at Mr. Ed Clark's.

Mr. Alex Bullitt, of Louisville, who has been with his brother at Fort Hill several days, returned Thursday.

Misses Addie and Jella Dittie, of Meigs county will arrive in the city today to visit Miss Addie's sister, Mrs. D. B. Babbage.

Miss Kate Jackson and J. L. Adams, of Hawgville, came up to be present at the arrival of Mr. R. P. White and Miss Lilla Plunkett.

Mrs. G. E. Lightfoot returned from Sorgho-town last week, accompanied by her sister, Miss Annie Hamilton, who will remain with her several weeks.

Mr. William M. Henley, of Hardinsburg, was here last week, and will visit in five years.

We don't see how William can keep away from a life so long, especially when it is so near to him.

See Wm. Vest & Sons advertisement in this issue.

LADIES.

Needle a little, or children will be troubling you.

It is pleasant to take, once Malaria, Influenza, and the like.

BRANDENBURG.

J. K. Dittie went to the city Sunday night.

Dolph Jones, of Big Spring, was in town last Friday.

Eddie Heller, of Hodgenville, is here visiting friends.

If you want to marry, edit the Meade News. Sure shot.

Mr. David Henderson is in from Dakota to spend the winter.

Miss Bettie Dittie was very ill last week from a bilious attack.

W. F. Casper, of Louisville, is at home on a vacation.

Miss Anna B. Saunders returned to Louisville last Thursday.

Mr. Tom Carley went to the city with some nice horses last week.

The hard rain and wind Sunday night settled the roads very much.

Mr. O. Y. Moreman, our Clever wharf master went to Cairo last week.

Miss Georgia Moreman is visiting her sister, Mrs. Drury, at Belleville.

The river is on a rampage. The back water came nearly up to the wall.

Miss Addie O. and Julia E. Dittie are visiting Mrs. J. D. Babbage, Cloverport.

Dittie Bros. shipped a lot of corn to H. W. Herndon & Co., Louisville, Saturday.

Miss Annie Richardson, of Garrett, was the guest of the Misses Woolf last week.

Mr. J. S. Moreman is in Louisville managing the Malleable Iron and Steel works.

Elvis Wimp and Albert Richardson went down to Irvington on a hunting expedition last Friday.

Mr. J. W. Lewis and Chappie Whalen were at home Saturday and Sunday from Hardinsburg.

Mrs. Tony, of Louisville, was down to see her father, Mr. Elder, at Mr. B. H. Mooreman's.

Considerably cooler Monday morning than on Sunday; no sitting out on porches in your shirt sleeves.

There are a few cases of measles in the bottom and about Weldon and a good deal of a cold fever in town.

The freight train took two head of cattle belonging to W. C. McGehee, at Long Branch, Thursday night.

Miss Jennie and Hester Woolf were the guests of Miss Mary Bickert, Long Branch, for several days.

For a good and reliable commission house, ship to H. W. Herndon & Co., 3d and Main, Louisville, Ky.

The officers of Cloverport Lodge No. 133, F. & A. M. will be installed at the Baptist church of this city tonight, Wednesday, with appropriate ceremonies.

Thos. S. Pettit, of Owensboro, will be present and deliver an address. The public is invited.

Rev. Mr. Penrod has been called to the Baptist church of this city. He is formerly of Texas but a Kentuckian by birth and an excellent young preacher. He will move his family here in a short time. His time will be divided between this church and Hawgville.

The machine shops are about completed and ready for the machinery. As soon as the two-table is finished the work of putting in the machinery will commence. The building shows up extremely well. Some of our people expected and they are now satisfied that it was not such a bad bargain after all.

Mr. S. M. A. Perry, master mechanic of the L. & N. R. T. was here last week looking for a house. He expects to leave in the next month, and says there will be thirty or forty men with their families to come if they can secure houses. How are these men to be accommodated and not a house to be found?

Mr. R. P. White, of Fort Worth, Texas and Miss Lilla Plunkett, of this city were married at the Baptist church last Wednesday at 9:30 o'clock a. m. Rev. Father Lampton, of Rockport, officiating. The church was appropriately decorated for the occasion and the many friends of Miss Lilla filled the house to its utmost to witness the ceremony. It was a beautiful wedding and the bride and groom were very happy. Father Lampton in his choice words fully spoke made them one, then came the happy farewells of relatives and friends and the newly made pair left immediately for their future home, Fort Worth.

See Wm. Vest & Sons advertisement in this issue.

THE LADIES DELIGHTED.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the Liquid Fruit Syrup, Syrup of Figs, and all the other medicines made by the same, it is pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effective in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

UNION STAR.

Mrs. Ricketts is on the sick list.

Dr. Milner has been on the sick list.

Miss Beck Ricketts is visiting relatives in Cloverport.

Jimmie Brodie, of Cedar Grove, was visiting friends here last week.

Miss Minnie Hoyle has returned after a brief but pleasant visit to Cloverport.

La Grippe seems to have taken a pretty stout grip on quite a number of our citizens.

A good many people in this vicinity have lost their meat on account of the warm, damp weather.

News came from the serious illness of Mrs. O. Cunningham's brother, Dick Elder, at his home in Cedar Grove.

Mr. Jas. L. Carl had a light stroke of something like paralysis on the right side of his face and at present has laughs on the other side of it.

Such a winter as this has been so far, cannot be remembered by even the oldest inhabitant. The grass is some of our yards is as green as it was in May and we have seen violent in bloom out of season.

Miss Lilla Cashman has returned from New Albany, Ind., where she met with quite an accident. In attempting to descend an unfortunate ladder, she fell, striking her head on the side of the ladder, making a wound from which she is not yet recovered.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Build some houses.

Houses are plentiful at 10 cents per dozen.

See Wm. Vest & Sons advertisement in this issue.

For sale one good work horse 9 years old. J. J. Friel, Victoria.

For Sale—A good cow and calf. Apply to J. H. Rowland.

A full line of furniture and fixtures at reduced prices at A. D. Addison's, Addison.

You can save 25 cents on the dollar by buying your furniture at Addison's. The cheapest man on the Ohio river.

The regular meeting of the Breckenridge Lodge K. of P. has been changed from Wednesday to Monday night in each week.

Mrs. Fowler thinks he has struck it rich in a cooking machine. He has already got it to a point where it will add four rows of figures at one time.

The roaring gas wells are a wonder, but none the more the effect of Gasier's magic chicken cholera cure. Sold and warranted by G. W. Short.

Wm. Vest & Sons speak in very plain terms to bargain hunters through their conspicuous advertisement in this issue. Prices tell the story and the News speaks it.

Mr. David Stanfill, accompanied by his wife and son, left last Saturday for Lexington, where he goes to attend the Christian College of the Bible, preparatory to permanently settling there.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Yeager, died last Thursday and was buried Friday, the services being conducted by Elder, David Stanfill of the Christian church.

Salter & Bro. have put on their second boarding on the L. B. & W. in charge of J. H. Mooreman of this city. This makes three in all. J. M. Bell and David Calk being in charge of the other two on the L. B. & W.

Mr. W. M. Monroe, adjuster for the N. Y. Underwriters Agency, was in the city Thursday arranging matters with Mr. Stanfill.

Mr. Stanfill left $1100 and the remainder of the old house at 11 o'clock.

Miss Irene Newman attended a young people's Monday evening. These present were Misses Annie Hamilton, Allene Murray, Paul Miller, and Messrs. James Dunn, Lou Newman, John H. Miller, W. R. Moreman, Walter Stuart.

The officers of Cloverport Lodge No. 133, F. & A. M. will be installed at the Baptist church of this city tonight, Wednesday, with appropriate ceremonies.

Thos. S. Pettit, of Owensboro, will be present and deliver an address. The public is invited.

Rev. Mr. Penrod has been called to the Baptist church of this city. He is formerly of Texas but a Kentuckian by birth and an excellent young preacher. He will move his family here in a short time. His time will be divided between this church and Hawgville.

The machine shops are about completed and ready for the machinery. As soon as the two-table is finished the work of putting in the machinery will commence. The building shows up extremely well. Some of our people expected and they are now satisfied that it was not such a bad bargain after all.

Mr. S. M. A. Perry, master mechanic of the L. & N. R. T. was here last week looking for a house. He expects to leave in the next month, and says there will be thirty or forty men with their families to come if they can secure houses. How are these men to be accommodated and not a house to be found?

Mr. R. P. White, of Fort Worth, Texas and Miss Lilla Plunkett, of this city were married at the Baptist church last Wednesday at 9:30 o'clock a. m. Rev. Father Lampton, of Rockport, officiating. The church was appropriately decorated for the occasion and the many friends of Miss Lilla filled the house to its utmost to witness the ceremony. It was a beautiful wedding and the bride and groom were very happy. Father Lampton in his choice words fully spoke made them one, then came the happy farewells of relatives and friends and the newly made pair left immediately for their future home, Fort Worth.

See Wm. Vest & Sons advertisement in this issue.

THE LADIES DELIGHTED.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the Liquid Fruit Syrup, Syrup of Figs, and all the other medicines made by the same, it is pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effective in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

UNION STAR.

Mrs. Ricketts is on the sick list.

Dr. Milner has been on the sick list.

Miss Beck Ricketts is visiting relatives in Cloverport.

Jimmie Brodie, of Cedar Grove, was visiting friends here last week.

Miss Minnie Hoyle has returned after a brief but pleasant visit to Cloverport.

La Grippe seems to have taken a pretty stout grip on quite a number of our citizens.

A good many people in this vicinity have lost their meat on account of the warm, damp weather.

News came from the serious illness of Mrs. O. Cunningham's brother, Dick Elder, at his home in Cedar Grove.

Mr. Jas. L. Carl had a light stroke of something like paralysis on the right side of his face and at present has laughs on the other side of it.

Such a winter as this has been so far, cannot be remembered by even the oldest inhabitant. The grass is some of our yards is as green as it was in May and we have seen violent in bloom out of season.

Miss Lilla Cashman has returned from New Albany, Ind., where she met with quite an accident. In attempting to descend an unfortunate ladder, she fell, striking her head on the side of the ladder, making a wound from which she is not yet recovered.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Build some houses.

Houses are plentiful at 10 cents per dozen.

See Wm. Vest & Sons advertisement in this issue.

For sale one good work horse 9 years old. J. J. Friel, Victoria.

For Sale—A good cow and calf. Apply to J. H. Rowland.

A full line of furniture and fixtures at reduced prices at A. D. Addison's, Addison.

You can save 25 cents on the dollar by buying your furniture at Addison's. The cheapest man on the Ohio river.

The regular meeting of the Breckenridge Lodge K. of P. has been changed from Wednesday to Monday night in each week.

Mrs. Fowler thinks he has struck it rich in a cooking machine. He has already got it to a point where it will add four rows of figures at one time.

The roaring gas wells are a wonder, but none the more the effect of Gasier's magic chicken cholera cure. Sold and warranted by G. W. Short.

Wm. Vest & Sons speak in very plain terms to bargain hunters through their conspicuous advertisement in this issue. Prices tell the story and the News speaks it.

Mr. David Stanfill, accompanied by his wife and son, left last Saturday for Lexington, where he goes to attend the Christian College of the Bible, preparatory to permanently settling there.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Yeager, died last Thursday and was buried Friday, the services being conducted by Elder, David Stanfill of the Christian church.

Salter & Bro. have put on their second boarding on the L. B. & W. in charge of J. H. Mooreman of this city. This makes three in all. J. M. Bell and David Calk being in charge of the other two on the L. B. & W.

Mr. W. M. Monroe, adjuster for the N. Y. Underwriters Agency, was in the city Thursday arranging matters with Mr. Stanfill.

Mr. Stanfill left $1100 and the remainder of the old house at 11 o'clock.

Miss Irene Newman attended a young people's Monday evening. These present were Misses Annie Hamilton, Allene Murray, Paul Miller, and Messrs. James Dunn, Lou Newman, John H. Miller, W. R. Moreman, Walter Stuart.

The officers of Cloverport Lodge No. 133, F. & A. M. will be installed at the Baptist church of this city tonight, Wednesday, with appropriate ceremonies.

Thos. S. Pettit, of Owensboro, will be present and deliver an address. The public is invited.

Rev. Mr. Penrod has been called to the Baptist church of this city. He is formerly of Texas but a Kentuckian by birth and an excellent young preacher. He will move his family here in a short time. His time will be divided between this church and Hawgville.

The machine shops are about completed and ready for the machinery. As soon as the two-table is finished the work of putting in the machinery will commence. The building shows up extremely well. Some of our people expected and they are now satisfied that it was not such a bad bargain after all.

Mr. S. M. A. Perry, master mechanic of the L. & N. R. T. was here last week looking for a house. He expects to leave in the next month, and says there will be thirty or forty men with their families to come if they can secure houses. How are these men to be accommodated and not a house to be found?

Mr. R. P. White, of Fort Worth, Texas and Miss Lilla Plunkett, of this city were married at the Baptist church last Wednesday at 9:30 o'clock a. m. Rev. Father Lampton, of Rockport, officiating. The church was appropriately decorated for the occasion and the many friends of Miss Lilla filled the house to its utmost to witness the ceremony. It was a beautiful wedding and the bride and groom were very happy. Father Lampton in his choice words fully spoke made them one, then came the happy farewells of relatives and friends and the newly made pair left immediately for their future home, Fort Worth.

See Wm. Vest & Sons advertisement in this issue.

THE LADIES DELIGHTED.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the Liquid Fruit Syrup, Syrup of Figs, and all the other medicines made by the same, it is pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effective in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

UNION STAR.

Mrs. Ricketts is on the sick list.

Dr. Milner has been on the sick list.

Miss Beck Ricketts is visiting relatives in Cloverport.

Jimmie Brodie, of Cedar Grove, was visiting friends here last week.

Miss Minnie Hoyle has returned after a brief but pleasant visit to Cloverport.

La Grippe seems to have taken a pretty stout grip on quite a number of our citizens.

A good many people in this vicinity have lost their meat on account of the warm, damp weather.

News came from the serious illness of Mrs. O. Cunningham's brother, Dick Elder, at his home in Cedar Grove.

Mr. Jas. L. Carl had a light stroke of something like paralysis on the right side of his face and at present has laughs on the other side of it.

Such a winter as this has been so far, cannot be remembered by even the oldest inhabitant. The grass is some of our yards is as green as it was in May and we have seen violent in bloom out of season.

Miss Lilla Cashman has returned from New Albany, Ind., where she met with quite an accident. In attempting to descend an unfortunate ladder, she fell, striking her head on the side of the ladder, making a wound from which she is not yet recovered.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Build some houses.

Houses are plentiful at 10 cents per dozen.

See Wm. Vest & Sons advertisement in this issue.

For sale one good work horse 9 years old. J. J. Friel, Victoria.

For Sale—A good cow and calf. Apply to J. H. Rowland.

A full line of furniture and fixtures at reduced prices at A. D. Addison's, Addison.

You can save 25 cents on the dollar by buying your furniture at Addison's. The cheapest man on the Ohio river.

The regular meeting of the Breckenridge Lodge K. of P. has been changed from Wednesday to Monday night in each week.

Mrs. Fowler thinks he has struck it rich in a cooking machine. He has already got it to a point where it will add four rows of figures at one time.

The roaring gas wells are a wonder, but none the more the effect of Gasier's magic chicken cholera cure. Sold and warranted by G. W. Short.

Wm. Vest & Sons speak in very plain terms to bargain hunters through their conspicuous advertisement in this issue. Prices tell the story and the News speaks it.

Mr. David Stanfill, accompanied by his wife and son, left last Saturday for Lexington, where he goes to attend the Christian College of the Bible, preparatory to permanently settling there.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Yeager, died last Thursday and was buried Friday, the services being conducted by Elder, David Stanfill of the Christian church.

Salter & Bro. have put on their second boarding on the L. B. & W. in charge of J. H. Mooreman of this city. This makes three in all. J. M. Bell and David Calk being in charge of the other two on the L. B. & W.

